

COLLEGE HORIZONS, 2009

A Pre-College Workshop For Native American Students

Collaborating partners: AIGC (American Indian Graduate Center), Futures for Children, Winds of Change magazine, Yale University, Whitman College, Princeton Review Foundation, the College Board and 43 of the nation's finest schools, colleges and universities.

JUNE 20 - 24 Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut

JUNE 27 – JULY 1 Whitman College, Walla Walla, Washington

College Horizons is a five-day “crash course” in preparing for college. Expert college counselors, teamed up with college admission officers, will help you:

- Select colleges suitable for you
- Complete winning applications and write memorable essays
- Learn what turns an applicant into an admitted student
- Become a test-prep “whiz kid”
- Find your way through the financial aid/scholarship jungle

Students will learn about a broad variety of colleges and universities, and establish personal relationships with admission representatives and college counselors that will continue long after the program is over. Participants will be limited to 90 at Yale and 80 at Whitman, and will be Native American (proof of enrollment), Alaska Native (proof of status) or Native Hawaiian current sophomores and juniors with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (in academic courses) required.

First round, priority receipt deadline is February 2; 2nd round receipt deadline is Feb. 27. Applications will be accepted on a space-available basis to May 1 (after March 1, please contact us to see which site may still have spaces). Complete program cost is $200 (includes tuition, room, meals, all materials and transportation to campus from the Hartford or Walla Walla or Pasco airports. Students are responsible for their own airfare, but substantial funds are available for travel and tuition assistance to students who have need (each year we award travel assistance to over 50% of our students). Students may indicate a site preference.
